A Few Words From Our Pastor.....

My dear Parishioners, Friends of our Parish, Brothers and Sisters,

Five-year-old Olivia has been playing at her friend's house for a long time. It's time for dinner. Usually, she would be hurrying home, but this time she pulls up and asks her friend if she can stay to have dinner with her. Mum's friend invites her to the table. After a few minutes, Olivia says that her home is not a happy place and it is not good for her to return to her parents. Asked why "it is not good," she answers with tears in her eyes, "My parents don't talk to each other."

Quiet days are a sign of dying love. Closed mouths express closed hearts. It was this painful cry of silent parents that wounded so deeply Olivia's little heart. She didn't understand the reason, but she felt that she was between two hearts, which, instead of loving each other, hurt each other with dislike. This is why Olivia, defending her heart, sought shelter outside of her own home, at her friend's house. Such silence is a time when evil is building very quickly the high wall of hostility. Gradually, people become strangers to each other and to themselves, and not infrequently, enemies. It takes often months or even years to completely resolve it.

Whoever knows this mechanism of storing grudge in the human heart, will understand Jesus' answer to Peter's question: "How many times do I forgive if my brother has gone against me? As many as seven times?" Jesus replied, "I tell you not seven times, but seventy-seven." Jesus meant that His disciples would not gather a single brick from which to build a wall of dislike of another man. We have to forgive seventy-seven times – that is, always!

I know it can be uncomfortable to focus on our sinfulness. We know it's there, but we much prefer to focus on the good in ourselves. Yet every now and then, we have to stop and think about the reality that we do, in fact, sin. At the very beginning of the Mass, we acknowledge this reality as we ask for God's mercy and forgiveness in the Penitential Rite. We realize that Jesus' mercy is amazing, and in that realization, we come to know not only that we are forgiven, but that we must be generous in forgiving others.

In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus speak about the breadth of the forgiveness we are called to offer. We are called to forgive not just once and not just seven times. We are called to forgive seventy-seven times. We are called to forgive overwhelmingly, just as the king forgives the servant in the parable, just as God forgives each of us.

Jesus leads the way in this, forgiving the woman caught in adultery, forgiving Thomas in his doubting and forgiving Peter for denying him three times. Jesus forgives us. How different would our world be if we practiced this kind of forgiveness constantly?

Forgiveness is not proof of human weakness, but it's a proof of the power of the human spirit. The forgiving person always wins. On September 11, 2017, we remembered one of the most tragic days in the history of the world. In New York and other places, the United States was attacked by terrorists. Such an event brings with it the question of forgiveness – although the answer is extremely difficult and involves a lot of pain and human tragedy. However, we should remember this tragic day so that innocent people will never die in this way. Let's pray for the victims of September 11, for their families, and for the conversion and repentance of those who hate and kill, thinking that this is the best way of exercising power.

Let us ask Christ for the grace of forgiving others. People who cannot forgive themselves close their way to freedom and true joy. Jesus, for the sake of our happiness, calls us to forgive each other: "... and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us..."

I wish you all a wonderful Sunday rest and a great week. I remember you in my everyday prayers, and I ask you to pray for me too, please. May God reward you for all the good that you do for Sacred Heart Parish.

With prayer,
Fr. Jacek

September 2017

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

This weekend we celebrate the seminarians of the Archdiocese of Chicago through our second collection. By offering our financial support we provide these young men with the critical education and training they need to shepherd our parishes and administer the sacraments. Last year, more than $978,000 was collected and I am thankful for your past and present support.

Pope Francis reminds us that, “The Church and the world need mature and balanced priests, intrepid and generous Pastors, capable of closeness, of listening and mercy.” There are currently 54 seminarians preparing for a life of service as your future parish priests. Our seminarians’ motivation and enthusiasm in their pursuit to answer God’s call is inspiring. They are the future guides for the spiritual and intellectual formation of our Catholic communities and are well deserving of our prayers and financial support. Contributions made to this collection alleviate monthly expenses such as tuition and fees ($1,672), room and board ($638), and health insurance ($171) for each seminarian and will be used solely for the formation of new priests for the Archdiocese of Chicago. You may utilize the remittance envelopes provided to your parish or should you find it more convenient, feel free to contribute online through our website at www.archchicago.org/seminarianfund.

For your generous support in the past and for your consideration of support again this year, I thank you. May God continue to bless you abundantly. Please know that I keep you in my daily prayers and intentions, and I ask for yours in return.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Drogie Siostry i drodzy Bracia w Chrystusie,

W ten weekend, podczas drugiej kolekty, pamiętamy o seminarzystach z Archidiecezji Chicago. Udzielając finansowego wsparcia dajemy tym młodym mężczyznom kluczową edukację i formację, jakiej potrzebują, aby byli pasterzami naszych parafii i, aby udzielali nam sakramentów. W ubiegłym roku zebraliśmy ponad $978,000 i jestem wdzięczny za Wasze wsparcie udzielone w przeszłości i udzielane obecnie.

Papież Franciszek przypomina nam, że „Kościół i świat potrzebuje dojrzałych i zrównoważonych księży, dzielnych i hojnych proboszczów, zdolnych do okazywania bliskości, słuchania i udzielania miłosierdzia”. Aktualnie 54 seminarzystów przygotowuje się do życia służebnego, jako Wasi przyszli księża parafialni. Inspirująca jest motywacja i entuzjazm naszych seminarzystów w kontynuowaniu odpowiedzi na Boże wezwanie. Są oni przyszłymi przewodnikami w duchowej i intelektualnej formacji naszych katolickich wspólnot i zdecydowanie zasługują na nasze modlitwy i pomoc finansową.

Ofiary złożone w ramach tej kolekty odciążą miesięczne wydatki, wśród których znajdują się: czesne i inne koszty ($1,672), mieszkanie i jedzenie ($638) oraz ubezpieczenie zdrowotne ($171) przypadające na jednego seminarzystę. Dary te zostaną przeznaczone wyłącznie na formację nowych księży Archidiecezji Chicago. W celu złożenia ofiary możecie wykorzystać koperty, które otrzymała Wasza parafia lub jeśli jest to dla Was wygodniejsze możecie złożyć swoją ofiarę w Internecie na stronie: www.archchicago.org/seminarianfund.

Dziękuję za Wasze hojne wsparcie w przeszłości i rozważenie pomocy ponownie w tym roku. Niech Bóg wciąż Wam obficie błogosławi. Proszę abyście pamiętali, że jesteście obecni w moich codziennych modlitwach i intencjach. W zamian proszę Was o Wasze modlitwy.

Szczerze oddany Wam w Chrystusie,

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

In 1935, the Vatican published a document that asks every country to acknowledge the importance of the Church's teaching ministry and to honor those who serve the Christian community as catechists.

This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 17, 2017, and will focus on the theme "Living as Missionary Disciples". Those whom the community has designated to serve as catechists will be called forth to be commissioned for their ministry. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

What does the word "catechetical" mean? The word might be more familiar than you think. Most Catholics have used the word "catechism" to describe the teachings of the Church. The root word, "catechesis," is from a Greek word which means "to echo or resound." Catechesis is the act of echoing or resounding the Church's teachings to the world. By definition, this expands the ministry of catechesis to each and every one of us, not just the "formal" catechists that we recognize today, but also, and especially, parents, grandparents, godparents, neighbors, and those of us who participate in the Mass each weekend. Our witness to the teachings of Jesus and Christianity are as valuable as catechesis in the classroom.

So today, as we celebrate the 82nd Anniversary of the Vatican's mandate to celebrate the catechetical ministry, we ask the Lord's blessing upon all of us, but most especially upon those who have acknowledged and accepted their Baptismal privilege to catechize and proclaim the Word of God through the ministry of catechesis.

Besides time spent in the classroom as Proclaimers of the Word, these ministers devote countless hours in formation to keep their own faith alive and active. Many have received training to become certified catechists with the Archdiocese of Chicago. All have received abuse training to better care for the children and youth of our parish. All of them have completed a criminal background check to ensure greater safety for all. We ask you to include these many volunteers in your prayers. We ask you also to pray for the families of these ministers. By sharing their loved ones, and their time and talent, Sacred Heart is able to function in its catechetical mission.

YARN COLLECTION

THIS WEEKEND

We will have baskets in the Narthex and Chapel Hallway to collect donations. We will also have shawls on display in the front pews of church. If you or someone you know would like a shawl, or would like to learn more about this ministry, please approach one of our representatives after Mass or call (708) 824 1362.

Our ministry was established in January 2010. We currently have 30 members who have made over 3,000 shawls. We also knit and crochet scarves, quilts, and blankets.

HOLY NAME

The men's Holy Name will meet on Monday, September 18th, in the Moscow Center. Beginning with Mass at 7:00PM; then followed by a short business meeting. Afterwards we invite you to stay and join us for fellowship, beverages & refreshments.

USHERS ARE STILL NEEDED

Please consider being an usher at Sacred Heart. We really can use help at all the Masses. If interested call Dave Gaidas at 708.974.4410.

BINGO — We need volunteers for Thursday evening Bingo. Call Rueben at 708.598.7931.

REMINDER: Officers will meet at 6:30PM.

ACCW

Ladies, fall seems to have arrived as another year of meetings and activities start up at Sacred Heart. Join the ladies of the ACCW at their first meeting on Tuesday, September 19, 2017. After the recitation of the rosary at 7:00 p.m. and a short business meeting, Teresa Stack will show us how to plant and maintain a succulent plant in a glass. All materials will be provided and you will bring your plant home with you. If you haven't paid your membership dues, bring your envelope with you and turn it in then. Remember, if you are over 85, you are exempt from paying dues. However, we need your envelope to know you still wish to belong to the ACCW.

BIBLE STUDY CLASSES

Please join Fr. Pat Tucker for Bible Study sessions on the following dates:

WEDNESDAY Sept. 20th at 1:00PM

THURSDAY, Sept. 21st at 7:00PM

Sessions held in the Ministry Center (St. Boniface Room).

Fun Club

The Fun Club will meet this Wednesday, September 20th, at 12:00 noon, in the Moscow Center. Join other Seniors for friendship and Bingo. Also, tickets will be on sale for White Fence Farm trip on November 17th. Call Lorraine at 974.2312 for further information on trip.

CHOIR

The Sacred Heart Adult Choir will have a rehearsal on Wednesday, September 20, at 7:00pm, in the Church.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL BUNDLE WEEKEND

NEXT WEEKEND ~ SEPTEMBER 23 AND 24, 2017

The St. Vincent de Paul Society will be having their Annual Clothing Drive NEXT weekend. You can bring your gently used clothing/coats to the St. Vincent de Paul trailers which will be in our parking lot.

Please remember to try and put your clothing donations in several sturdy bags rather than one as this will help keep the bags from being too heavy. There will be Members/helpers who will be available to assist and receive your donations.

TOOTSIE ROLL DRIVE
THIS WEEKEND BEFORE AND AFTER MASS
 Please stop by and help support the Knights of Columbus who sponsor this drive.
 All proceeds from the Tootsie Roll Drive will go to benefit those with intellectual disabilities.

LITURGICAL MINISTRY ~ OPPORTUNITIES FOR SERVICE

Every weekend the Sacred Heart community comes together at Mass to celebrate all that God has done for us, especially throughout the past week. Out of this community gathering, individuals are called to minister as Lectors, Ushers, Sacristans, Altar Servers, Music Ministers, and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion/Eucharistic Ministers (along with the priests and deacons, the liturgy planners, those who decorate the church, and the church cleaning and maintenance personnel). Each weekend Mass utilizes the service of at least 30 persons to prepare and facilitate the “work of the people,” the liturgy. Today we are appealing for your help—we are in GREAT NEED of more people to come forward and assist in these ministries.

If you know of someone (or you yourself) who would make a good candidate for the ministry of Usher, Eucharistic Minister, Lector, Altar Server (youth or adult), or Music Minister, please submit his/her/your name and telephone number to Rita Burns at the Ministry Center, 974-3336. Training sessions and enrichment programs are available at various times throughout the year. Some offerings follow:

Training for (new) Eucharistic Ministers	Sept. 11 & 18	7:00 p.m.	St. Julie Billiart, Tinley Park
Training for (new) Eucharistic Ministers	Sept. 20 & 27	7:00 p.m.	St. Lawrence O’Toole, Matteson
Training for (new) Eucharistic Ministers	Oct. 9 & 11	7:00 p.m.	St. John Fisher, Chicago
(Sessions for new Eucharistic Ministers will also be held in spring, 2018.)
Morning of Reflection for Lectors	Oct. 10	9:00 a.m.	St. Daniel the Prophet, Chicago

As part of our parish’s participation in the Archdiocese of Chicago Vicariate V Ministry Commission, all programs are free to parishioners of Sacred Heart Parish, unless otherwise noted. The full 2017-2018 Calendar of Events published by the Ministry Commission of Vicariate V can be found on their website: www.ministrycommissionV5.com

Remember My Story ~ Remember My Name

Sacred Heart Domestic Violence Outreach Ministry and our Pastor Father Jacek Wrona are planning a Silent Witness Exhibit, Sunday September 24, 2017 from 3:00 pm to 6:00 pm. The silhouettes represent local victims whose lives were taken by domestic violence. The objective of the exhibit is to bring awareness and provide information to our community about domestic violence. For the past twenty years, the Exhibits have been the most powerful way to honor those whose lives were lost in acts of domestic violence and to begin the healing process through awareness, education and treatment programs in hundreds of communities across America and several other countries, worldwide.

The Exhibit is a visual representation consisting of life-sized, red laminated silhouettes of the women, men and children murdered in acts of domestic violence during a specific period within each state, county or city. The goal of each Exhibit is to create an engaging display that will rally community support to grieve the losses of human life, create awareness and education materials and programs by collaborating with concerned and passionate members of your local community.

In 1990, the Silent Witness Initiative began promoting and educating to support an end to domestic violence through community based exhibits. It started with a small group of volunteers in one state and grew into an international presence, with projects in all 50 states and 23 countries. Silent Witness International is the leading voice that honors the lives of domestic violence homicide victims through family support, community connections, and advocacy for change.

Silent Witness International is the leading voice that honors the lives of domestic violence homicide victims through family support, community connections, and advocacy for change.

Many men and women die each year in acts of domestic violence in the United States. Each one has a story. Join our efforts to end this tragedy. Because we need to remember their stories. We need to remember their names. There will be community outreach resources providing information. We will hold a candlelight vigil at the close of our exhibit to honor the victims of domestic violence. <http://www.silentwitness.net/>

Family members will speak for our silhouettes.
Survivors of Domestic Violence, Human Trafficking and Sexual Assault will share their stories.
Senator Bill Cunningham will speak on legislation.
There will be community outreach resources providing information.
We will hold a candlelight vigil at the close of our exhibit to honor
