IN MEMORIAM

In Memoriam
POPE EMERITUS BENEDICT XVI

April 16, 1927 – December 31, 2022

Papacy:

April 19, 2005 – February 28, 2013

Joseph Alois Ratzinger was born in Marktl am Inn, Bavaria, on April 16, 1927—Holy Saturday—and baptized that same day—the first person baptized in the new Easter water. It was a sign of blessing, he wrote in a memoir, that his life from the beginning was thus immersed in the Easter mystery. He entered the minor seminary in 1939 at the age of twelve, but his studies were interrupted by World War II, when the seminary was closed and Joseph, along with most of his class, was drafted into the army at the age of sixteen.

After the war he resumed his education in philosophy and theology, and together with his brother, Georg, was ordained a priest in 1951. During the course of a twenty-year career as a professor of dogma and theology at several German universities, he earned a reputation as a gifted lecturer and learned scholar, and was present as a peritus, or theological advisor, at all four sessions of the Second Vatican Council.

He was ordained an archbishop in May of 1977 and elevated to the College of Cardinals a month later. He settled in Rome in 1981 and went on to become one of the most influential men in the Roman curia. Of the many offices he held, he was best known as the Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, an authoritative advisor on doctrinal issues during his predecessor's pontificate. When he was elected the 265th successor of Peter in 2005 at the age of seventy-eight, he became the first German pope since Victor II in the eleventh century. A central theme of his papacy was the staunch defense of core Christian values against what he saw as moral decline across much of Europe. At the same time, he sought to improve relations with other religions, trying to determine if a “cultural synthesis” was possible without losing the identity of the faith while engaged in discourse with the Lutheran World Federation, Judaism, Islam, the Anglican Communion, and Christian Orthodox Churches. He also spoke out against human rights abuses and ongoing political conflicts and warfare, and advocated better protection of the environment. He called for a radical rethinking of the global economy, criticizing the growing divide between rich and poor, and pressed for a “true world political authority” to oversee the economy and work for the common good.

Ever true to his episcopal motto, “Fellow Worker in the Truth,” Pope Benedict XVI's teaching and prolific writings always defended traditional Catholic doctrine and values.

On February 11, 2013, Pope Benedict XVI announced that on February 28, 2013, he would resign as supreme pontiff due to his advanced age and deteriorating health and that a conclave would be convened shortly thereafter to elect a new pope. He returned to Rome and remained there as Pope Emeritus after Jorge Bergoglio succeeded him as Bishop of Rome.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.

“Chalking the Door”

“Chalking the Door” Is away to celebrate and literally mark the occasion of the Epiphany and God’s blessing in our lives and in our home. The family gathers to ask for God’s blessing on their home and those who live in or visit the home. It is an invitation for Jesus to be a daily guest there—in the comings and goings, conversations, work, play, joys and sorrows.

In 2023, the first number “20” is for the first 2 numbers of the year. The letters C, M, B have two meanings: the initials of the Magi: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar, and abbreviate the Latin words, Christus Mansionem Benedicat, “May Christ bless the house.” The signs represent the Cross, and “23” the year.

Instructions for Blessing the Home

Using the blessed chalk, mark your front door as follows:

20 + C + M + B + 23 while saying:

“The three Wise Men, Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar followed the star of God’s Son who became human. May Christ bless our home and remain with us throughout the new year. Amen.

Visit, O blessed Lord, this home with the gladness of your presence. Bless all who live or visit here with the gift of your love; and grant that we may manifest your love to each other and to all whose lives we touch. May we grow in grace and in the knowledge and love of you; guide, comfort, and strengthen us in peace, O Jesus Christ, now and forever. Amen.”

Chalking the door is a way to celebrate and literally mark the occasion of the Epiphany and God’s blessing of our lives and home. With time the chalk will fade. As it does we let the meaning of the symbols written sink into the depths of our heart and be manifest in our words and actions the Latin words,

“Christus Mansionem Benedicat”
“May Christ Bless the House”

The Epiphany of the Lord
Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come,
the glory of the Lord shines upon you. —Isaiah 60:1

FINDING GOD

The splendid magi, all sparkle and dash and solemnity, march right up off the pages of Matthew's Gospel and into our churches today. Matthew alone tells us this grand and seductive story so that we might see the light and know that the child these magi visited is the fulfillment of prophecy, the king of the world that stretches to the magi's home country and beyond, right down the ages to us.

We too see and understand anew. Like the magi, our patron saints for this day, we see in the newborn child the king of the universe and light of the world. Like the magi, we find in ourselves a new faith and a new life. Like them, we return to our home by a new route.

We are asked to come away from this festive season ourselves renewed and awake to the presence of God among us. We are asked to find God where God is to be found, to be attentive and surprised and ready to bow down in adoration and to offer our gifts.

Gratitude is the inward feeling of kindness received.
Thankfulness is the natural impulse to express that feeling.

Christmas Giving Project Thank You!

...and Jesus said, "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did to the least of my brethren you did for me."

The soaring high prices this year for food, gas, utilities, etc. did not discourage the generous hearts of our parishioners here at Sacred Heart.

We are grateful to those who donated cash, which allowed us to purchase over 100 gifts; the Prayer Shawl Ministry, for donating 25 beautiful shawls; and those who were able to purchase and wrap gifts. All of these donations allowed us to provide 378 gifts and received heartfelt thanks from:

- Hickory Nursing Home Residents
- St. Coletta's "Special Needs" Residents
 - Children whose parents use Orland Township's Food Pantry serving the Southwest Communities

A special thanks to the numerous volunteers who purchased, wrapped, sorted and packed these gifts as well as our Maintenance Department and Teen Volunteers.

Blessings to all, Sacred Heart Christmas Giving Project Committee

P.S.—We are still looking for a donor who donated a box of gifts, one of which included a gift to a specifically named person. If you or someone you know is missing a personalized gift intended for a loved one, please call the Ministry Center at 708-974-3336 ext. 4.

Protect Species Diversity

Scientists report that nearly one million species are at risk of extinction by the end of this century, driven by human activity. Biodiversity is necessary for a healthy world. We can take individual action to protect biodiversity by:

- Reducing our fossil fuel usage which contributes to warming that is contributing to growing extinction rates
- Eating foods that require lower land use or reduce aquatic impact to minimize habitat loss
- Advocating for Congressional legislation that will conserve nature and promote clean energy
- Supporting local conservation efforts or organizations that are making a difference
- Planting native flora to support the wildlife around you, and minimizing your use of pesticides and herbicides.

Consider spending time to better understand how the way we live our lives impacts the world around us. There are opportunities for all of us to make modifications to help ensure future generations can enjoy a world as beautiful, diverse and ecologically healthy as the one we inherited.
