Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

You have turned aside from the way,
and have caused many to falter by your instruction.
(Mal 2:8)

Psalm:

In you, Lord, I have found my peace. (Ps 131)

Second Reading:

With such affection for you, we were determined to share with you
not only the gospel of God, but our very selves as well,
so dearly beloved had you become to us. (1Thes 2:8)

Gospel:

"Therefore, do and observe all things whatsoever they tell you,
but do not follow their example.
For they preach but they do not practice." (Mt 23:3)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Christ turns the way of the world upside down:
the great become the small and the honored ones become humble. Be small, and you will feel his greatness. Be humble, and you will know the honor of Heaven.

Observances for the week of November 5, 2023

- Sunday: 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time; Daylight Saving Time Ends; National Vocation Awareness Week
- Tuesday: Election Day
- Thursday: The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica
- Friday: St. Leo the Great, Pope and Doctor of the Church
- Saturday: St. Martin of Tours, Bishop; Veterans Day
- Next Sunday: 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Saint of the week

Venerable Mother Henriette DeLille was a woman of faith, perseverance, and service who dedicated her life to the people of New Orleans. Her courage, compassion, and dedication to the oppressed was a shining example of what it means to live a life of service and love.

Prayer

O good and gracious God, You called Henriette Delille to give herself in service and in love to the slaves and the sick, to the orphan and the aged, to the forgotten and the despised.

Grant that inspired by her life, we might be renewed in heart and in mind. If it be Your will may she one day be raised to the honor of sainthood. By her prayers, may we live in harmony and peace, through Jesus Christ, Our Lord.

Amen.

A PRAYER FOR OUR

SERVICEMEN AND WOMEN

Give thanks for your freedom and favor.

What a blessing it is to enjoy the freedoms we too often take for granted and the blessings that attend us in this country.

Pray for those who protect our freedom.

Remember those who fought and died for our freedom in the past and those soldiers, sailors, police, firemen, and all others whose service protects us today.

Pray for our nation's leaders.

Paul, the early church leader, wrote, "I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people—for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. This is good, and pleases God our Savior" (1 Timothy 2:1-3, NIV). If he were writing today, Paul would probably include not only the president and other national officials but also members of Congress, governors, judges and others in positions of authority.

Pray for the safety of those who gather to celebrate the holiday.

In this day and age, any large gathering presents security challenges large and small. Ask God to grant wisdom and watchfulness to planners and hosts of events—as well as the usual need for caution in handling fireworks and other seasonal hazards.

Remember those in oppressive or disadvantaged circumstances.

As we express gratitude for our freedoms, we should also remember those who live in different circumstances where war, oppression, discrimination and injustice divide and dominate. Even as you rejoice in your blessings, cry out to God for those who suffer.

We ask our Church Family to especially Pray for those men and women of the Armed Forces listed below and their families. May we never forget their continual sacrificing so we can enjoy the gift of FREEDOM. Keep praying for them and our Veterans. May we never forget their courage and patriotism.
