Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

As a priest, I'm amazed how happily married couples remember the tiniest details of their earliest encounters. They effortlessly report things like: "he wore a blue shirt," "we ordered brussels sprouts," "her hair was up in a bun," and "he spilled shrimp cocktail sauce at my family's open front door when it was ten degrees below zero," (that one's courtesy of my mom). We delight in remembering and speaking of when our new life of love began. The little details are glorious reminders that it's all real.

It's similar for John the Apostle. He tells us of the two disciples who followed Jesus into his house, "...they stayed with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon." Why does that tiny detail matter? Because that's the time of day when they encountered the love of Jesus the Messiah in their lives. Our religion is not primarily about abstract truths about God, no matter how true or sublime. It is about God meeting and saving us in our human nature. It's about a human relationship.

What was the time of day when you first recall encountering Christ and his Church? Who was there? What did you feel? How did things look and smell? What happened? Take some time to recall it in detail. For me, it was inside an old, rickety church on a hillside in Jerome, Arizona. It was about 9 p. m. on a Saturday evening. I was with my friends Jenny, Brad, and Laura. We were praying, singing, and laughing. When was it for you? Remembering the details isn't empty nostalgia. It reminds us now that God's love for us in our humanity is real.

— Father John Muir

Sharing Parish Food Drive

Sacred Heart family, you helped us close out 2023 in marvelous fashion. Last month, we delivered 1,374 lbs. of food to Elsie's Pantry (our largest collection of the year)! For all of '23, we donated 11,006 lbs. (+42% vs. '22)! And since our family took over this ministry in February 2018, we've donated an amazing 49,010 lbs. to those in need. Those results show what's possible when we join forces to help others. THANK YOU! Next weekend (Jan 20 & 21) is our first food collection of 2024. Help keep this momentum going. And for those who didn't participate in last year's fun, here's your chance. Happy New Year, The Pizur Family
