Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I love movies about exorcisms. Apparently, so do many others. The 2023 movie "Nefarious" features a possibly possessed inmate on death row. Critics were not impressed, but audiences scored it at 97% on the website Rotten Tomatoes. Most people have an appreciation for the demonic realm, even if cultural elites are generally embarrassed about it. As is standard in exorcism movies, the afflicted person (in this case, a man named Edward Brady) thinks and acts like multiple persons. He is someone besides himself. We know what that is like. We feel fake sometimes, not ourselves.

The same dynamic is on dramatic display this week in the Gospel. Jesus the Exorcist approaches a possessed man who utters, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?" Notice the plural, us. The basic effect of the demonic is division. The man's identity is fractured, divided, and thus many. Jesus powerfully expels the spirit by saying, "Quiet! Come out of him!" Jesus' word has the power to restore the man's singularity — him — and indeed it does.

All this helps us to dismiss childish images of demons sporting red goat tails. Equally, it overcomes the cultured aloofness that dreams demons are mere metaphors for evil. We see instead that fallen angels are conscious and intelligent beings who orient their agency toward division. They bring about schism where there should be unity, e.g., in persons, families, communities, politics, and so on. Thankfully, Jesus commands demons to flee from all these places to restore wholeness and peace. What if we made room for his word where we need it?

— Father John Muir

WEEKLY STEWARDSHIP RECOMMENDATION

Every appliance comes with two price tags: the purchase price and the cost of operating the product. ENERGY STAR certified appliances help consumers save money on operating costs by reducing energy use without sacrificing performance. Reducing energy use can reduce fossil fuel emissions that pollute the air and contribute to climate instability. And since appliances have a long service life, small everyday savings add up to a big impact over time. Choosing energy efficient ENERGY STAR products can save families $100s. This ENERGY STAR website below provides information on products, rebates and tax credits for your ZIP code which can help make your home more energy efficient.

To learn about upgrading to energy efficient products and other home improvements that can deliver significant energy and cost savings, go to: www.energystar.gov for more information.

OLD PALMS

Starting next weekend, February 3rd and 4th, we will have containers available for collecting your old palms.

We ask that you please put them in the marked containers located in church and there will also be a container in the Ministry Center. These palms will be burned to provide ashes for our ceremony on Ash Wednesday,

FEBRUARY 14, 2024.

YEAR END TAX STATEMENTS

In the past, we have automatically sent out year-end tax statements for anyone who contributed over $250. Due to the new IRS regulations, it is likely that more people will be using the standard deduction and will not be itemizing.

Because of this new regulation, we have decided not to automatically send out charitable contribution letters.

We will be happy to provide these letters upon request. All you need to do is to please contact the Parish Office (708) 974-3336, Press 0, and leave your name and telephone number.

Thank you, we are grateful for your very generous support!
